Andover fire fighters are shown completing the task of running a cable underground from the fire station to the town office building to carry electricity from an emergency generator in the basement of the fire station. This will be used in the event of a power breakdown due to storms. (Cole Photo)

Generator For Emergency Use

In the event of a power failure, Andover police and fire fighters will have an emergency set up as the result of a project carried out by the town fire fighters.

A generator secured from Civil Defense has been set up in the basement of the fire station and a cable has been run underground to the town office building and the police station.

Should the public power go off, the generator would be placed in operation. This would supply power for the fire and police radios and would also furnish illumination for the town building and also the fire headquarters.

C. D. Director Lee Noyes obtained the generator which will supply 25,000 watts of electricity. The fire fighters dug a trench to the town building and installed a cable. With the unit in operation, there would be enough power to light the town hall and fire station, operate oil burners in both buildings, keep the radios going as well as the fire alarm system.

Town Expenses For Six Months

Andover's budgetary appropriations of $3,725,152.52 for the current year are maintaining a satisfactory level Town Manager Thomas E. Duff told the board of selectmen Monday evening. During the first six months of the year expenditures amounted to $1,847,704.51. This leaves a balance of $1,877,448.01 for the remainder of the year.

The town manager pointed out that the winter is now behind in that the usually heavy snowfall months of January and February are gone. He said that the appropriations should take care of the remainder of the year.

The town manager also received an expression of appreciation from Chairman Eugene A. Bernardin of the selectmen who complimented him on the efficient manner in which he is getting things done.

Selectmen Grant Permit To White

Unanimous approval was given Monday night by the board of selectmen to the petition of Sidney P. White to level a hill and sell the gravel on a location off Andover st. He said that he has a right of way between Andover st. and the railroad tracks. He presented a plan to the board at the public hearing showing that after the crown of the hill is cut down, loam will be placed on the area to

Free Parking On Value Days

Shoppers taking advantage of Andover's annual Value Days Thursday, Friday and Saturday will receive a bargain from the town as the result of unanimous action taken Monday night at the selectmen's meeting.

The board agreed to a request from the Board of Trade to allow free parking at all metered spaces during the three day period of July 30, 31 and Aug. 1.

Town Manager Thomas E. Duff advised the board of the merchants' request and at the same time brought up another parking meter matter. Mr. Duff said that

A pair of tell-tale initial cuff links which turned up among thousands of dollars worth of loot at a Dracut home may provide the solution for a bold armed robbery in Andover last May 11.

Victim of the robbery was Evan W. Brumagoin of River rd., who with his son Randy were forced to remain quiet while two men piled household valuables into duffel bags and made off.

The arrest of a Dracut truck driver and the discovery of $50,000 worth of goods in a dugout under his home is expected to have a local angle.

On the afternoon of May 11, Brumagoin returned home at 2:30 p.m. and surprised two men who were looting his River road home. He was forced at gun point to lie on the floor. A short time later his son, Randy came home, was grabbed by the shirt by one of the bandits and was thrown into a room and told to remain quiet.

Andover police have sought the two men for the past ten weeks. The first break came with the arrest of the Dracut man, Everett Wacome, 29, on July 17 and the finding of the huge store of loot.

LL Nine In Series Loss

Andover's Little League nine was knocked out of the semi-finals of the District 16 championship Tuesday night at the Primrose street grounds in Haverhill where they bowed 2-0 to the Pentucket team.

The local club made the semi-finals by virtue of a no hit, no run performance by John Gallant, 12, last Saturday against Newburyport which the Andover team blanked 15-0.

It was a different story Tuesday evening when the pitching strength was with the opposition. Pentucket's Banner allowed only three hits and fanned nine during the five and one-half innings.

Has a salesman ever advised you NOT to buy something because its quality was below par? CO-OP customers have been so advised.

Dave Binnie, produce man at the CO-OP, is the shopper's watchdog. If the quality of grapefruit should be below par this week, he will tell you so. Because he believes that what's in the customer's best interest is also in the store's best interest, our shoppers have unbounded confidence in his advice and love him for his complete honesty.

Born in Scotland where thrift is a tradition and the cooperative movement is strong, Dave even used CO-OP savings to finance his trip to the States. Since 1944, he has built an army of loyal CO-OP customers.

MRS. RICHARD A. SEAL

SEAL - NALCHAJIAN

A wedding of interest to Andover residents took place July 25 at our Lady of Grace Church, Chelsea, when Richard Alan Seal, son of George H. and Myldred Chadwick Seal, 385 Ocean ave., Marblehead, formerly of Andover, took as his bride Miss Nancy Nalchajian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Willard D. Nalchajian, 5 Nichols st., Chelsea.

The church was decorated for the 3 p.m. ceremony with white gladioli and blue delphinium. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk-cloud taffeta fashioned with a portrait Bertha pleated collar scalloped with re-embroidered alencon lace with short sleeves and fitted bodice over a carriage skirt accented with re-embroidered alencon lace and pleated hemline. The back was accented with a pleated fan-shaped bustle and a court train. She wore a mantilla of matching re-embroidered lace.

Miss Priscilla Nalchajian, who was maid of honor, wore a gown of ice blue organza over taffeta with small applied flowers on a very full skirt. The matron of honor, Mrs. Peter A. Redding, of Watertown, Conn. wore a similar gown to that of the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Bruce McElowney of Quantico, Va. and Miss Judith Anne Seal. Their gowns were also ice blue organza over taffeta with small applied flowers on a very full skirt and they wore crowns of ivy leaves.

The best man was Willard R. Nalchajian and the ushers were Kenneth Chadwick, Windham, N.H., Robert Rhodes of Boston, and Peter A. Redding of Watertown, Conn.

The bride's mother wore a gown of delphinium blue lace trimmed with matching taffeta and accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of ice blue lace trimmed with matching satin and accessories.

The bride was educated at Walnut Hill School and Mount Holyoke College. The bridegroom prepared for Harvard at Phillips Academy here. Following a wedding trip to Europe the couple will reside in Cambridge.

AWARDED $1300 FOR PARTIAL DISABILITY

Mrs. Birute Olefirowicz of Lynnwood ave., was granted a lump sum of $1300 for partial disability by Commissioner Harry Demeter Jr., of the Industrial Accident Board for an injury sustained at work in a shoe shop a year ago.

Atty. Arthur J. DeFusco represented Mrs. Olefirowicz and Atty. Harry Whalen was the counsel for the Travelers Insurance Company. Mrs. Olefirowicz sustained a shoulder injury a year ago according to her counsel and since then had not been able to obtain employment because the injury had left her partially disabled. If the work included the of any objects, he maintained, the injury would be aggravated.

The lump sum grant will go before the full board for approval.

What Our Readers Say—

Militant Motherhood

PROLOGUE

To the Editor of the Townsman:
"I'm going back on my word. I'm proposing to inflict on your readers the very thing I said I'd spare them—namely, an imaginary vision of a small army of Militant Mothers who, after a heated meeting, march on their school committee to demand adoption of their pet project of pre-preprimary education as part of the school program.

"Below, for whatever smiles that may engender, are the sordid details. Any resemblance to poetry or reality is strictly accidental."

Dino G. Valz

THE ASSAULT

Following solemn convocation,
Filled with fierce determination
Our mothers start their peregrination.
The ramparts stormed, our delegation
Beards the den of administration
To put the bite for acceptance
Of their pre-preprimary presentation
On the august Board of Education
With the following declamation.

GIVE US TEACHERS

"Give us Teachers—
With a minimum bachelors degree
As collegiate guarantee
Of technical proficiency
In juvenils psychology.
Reenforced by certification
Augmented by accreditation
Giving official validation
From the finest state in our fair Nation.
Teachers screened by aptitude measurement
Established by our teacher organization
For teacher merit evaluation.
Teachers with latest methodology
For infant problems in philology
Who achieve full exploitation
Of every precocious situation
By means of Kilpatrick's deviation
From Dewey's Philosophy of Education.

Who correct pokes in oculation
With nary a pat of soft foundation
Of our recently undiapered population

To improve our juveniles' coordination
Progressing from digital computation
To polysyllabic articulation.
Give us story declamation
Give us finger picturation
Give us graphic delineation
Of Pater's quaint configuration.
Give us tales of gentle bunnies
To offset the gory funnies.
Build a world of birds and bees
Making love up in the trees.

GIVE US ENVIRONMENT

"No longer a solitary art is learning
But rather a gregarious yearning
Yielding to expert implementation
Of architectural imagination
Permitting flexible manipulations
Of complex spatial relations
For environmental stimulations
Creating new learning situations.
Disdaining Plato's Plane tree
Or sermonizing from a mount,
We want structural efficiency
As an aid to help kids count."

REFUTATION

And now our Militant Delegation
Counters contrary consideration
With shattering feminine devastation.
For all his learned legalization
They want no Haartzian obfuscation
And so continue their argumentation:
"Not for the alleviation
Of private baby sitteration
Do we beg the Board of Education
For expeditious approbation,
Nor to permit participation
In the League's civic convocations
Or November's morning dramatizations
Or PTA's Koffee Klatch collations.

HESITATION

Some officials still meditated
Whether this crisis was created
So Mama could mix in High Society
Free from guilt feelings or filial anxiety.
Whether they could with official propriety
Stimulate development of a Sweatless Society
Encouraged by our welfare State
And advocated by our educational Doctorate.
Then our Mothers heap electoral considerations
On the School Comm's tribulations
And pause for immediate integration
Of their babes in public education.

CAPITULATION

From this frightful confrontation
The School Comm needs quick extrication
To escape electoral condemnation.
Without too close examination
Of every possible ramification,
They feel they must buy this innovation -
Despite the Fin Com's protestation,
Ignoring the Taxpayer's Association
And the Townsman's predication.
And so our Board of Education,
To escape the imprecations
Of our modern Carrie Nations,
Approve by vote of acclamation
This new Mickey Mouse matriculation -
To prove their faith in free recreation
A prime ingredient of Hedonistic Education.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Keep The Books Straight

Members of the governor's official family have been expressing their displeasure at the Senate's decision to prevent transfers of funds within departments.

One particularly flagrant example of the abuse of this system was noted last week, when a five-figure transfer was put through by a department, to accomplish a purpose that had met with the legislators' disapproval.

We elect the legislators and when they do not approve of an expenditure, that should be the end of it. A transfer of funds, from account to account, seems to be a deliberate violation of the democratic principles when it is contrary to the expressed wish of the peoples' representatives.

This method of spending funds is not new to Andover — but here there have been instances when it worked to the town's advantage.

The School Committee last year convinced the Finance Committee that a larger budget would result if funds could not be transferred. The Committee may, for instance, have a small surplus in one account and be able to use it for repairs, or some other necessary item. This would not be possible under a strict system — so the Committee would turn back a surplus in one account, then ask for a special disbursement from the Finance Committee's emergency fund. All that's accomplished is a lot of bookkeeping.

So it is possible, we realize, for money to be transferred back and forth within a general budget and actually save dollars in the long run. We wonder, however, whether in an operation the size of the state, it is wise to give one or two persons in a department the authority to actually over-ride the opinion of the legislature. It's one thing to allow procedures of this sort in a town where it's easy to keep track of the money. It's quite another thing to allow it in the state government, where it is possible that official actions are not so visible, so quick to come before the public.

Near The End Of The Month

With July practically at an end, we can't help but add our doleful comment about the vacation weather this summer.

Only one day in June was free of rain, and now memory indicates that July, while not quite as bad, was a tough month for vacationers. It's also been a bad couple of months for resort owners and the proprietors of businesses depending on the vacationing public.

Farmers have been hard hit by the abundance of rain; in many cases crops have been all but wiped out.

All in all, it's been a farce of a summer.

But there's bound to be a silver lining in any cloud.

In this case, the weather has been a conversation piece wherever one goes. For those who find it difficult to think of anything else to say, they're on sure ground when they complain about the rain, the humidity and the heat.

Maybe next year we'll have a drought, then those who complained about the rain this year can bake in the sun and complain about the lack of it. For human nature is funny — whatever the weather, it's never right.

Maybe, just maybe, August will be clear and warm for those who worked through the sixth and seventh months. Wanta bet there'll be complaints about that, too?

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — July, 1909

David R. Lawson is spending a week at the Sea View at York Beach, Me.

Edward B. Chapin of this town has taken the examination and been admitted to the Bar.

William Baker was painfully injured while working on Park st. Thursday. He was working on a culvert when one of the covers slipped and slammed down on his toes, severely bruising them.

Manager George A. Dane of the Ballardvale baseball team has challenged the winner of the series between the Eagles and K. of C. for the Townsman cup.

Under the ERA, Andover will get two tennis courts and a soccer field at the Playstead. The Boston office has given approval for the project, which will begin as soon as the sewer project on Cor-

A runaway horse trampled gardens and shrubbery on Whittier st. The horse was apparently stung by a hornet and bolted through a hedge. At that point, he managed to shed the dump wagon he was hauling and also got out of the harness. Neighbors managed to quiet the beast after he trampled much of the yard.

Two Malden youths were arrested by Reading police, who notified Andover authorities that goods from a Main st. athletic store were in their car. The youths were held for the grand jury on charges stemming from a Newburyport charge.

A gala midway will be the attraction at the Firemen's Relief Association carnival at the Playstead Sept. 14-17. Fred L. Collins is chairman of the committee.

The Selectmen have blasted a recent ruling of the commissioner of the state Department of Public Welfare, after estimating that the requirements would cost 60 cents per capita. The Selectmen say the ruling requires a 150 percent increase in employees and the keeping of voluminous records by the local department. This, they claim, is "non-constructive, needless, wasteful and would lead to the greatest compilation of lies that could be imagined". The Board has asked many public officials to assist in reversing the ruling, which took about 50 typewritten pages to explain.

The Board of Public Works will receive applicants for the vacancy created by the resignation of Charles T. Gilliard as town engineer, effective Sept. 1.

Free ice cream, tonic and candy was an attraction at the annual playground outing at Canobie Lake Tuesday. Over 260 youngsters attended.

Hen thieves are calling at various farms in town. They cut through wire mesh fences on the ranges and steal the hens. Police are attempting to track down the thieves, who have made off with an uncounted number of pullets.

What Our Readers Say—

To the Editor of the Townsman:

"Your editorial of July 15 applauding the Selectmen's decision to obtain additional estimates for the proposed engineering survey on drainage should be tempered by a note of caution. As a former chairman of the Board of Public Works and a registered professional engineer with 30 years experience in the field of Civil Engineering, the writer knows first hand the folly of engaging professional engineering services on the basis of competitive prices.

"Professional services, whether they be in engineering, law or medicine, are not amenable to detailed specifications. When engineers bid for the furnishing of professional services for a project, they cannot possibly be bidding on furnishing the same amount and quality of professional service. The amounts bid in dollars can be compared, but there is no way to compare the amount and quality of professional service to be rendered. The low bidder's concept of the work may be vastly different from that of a more experienced firm. The professional qualifications, experience and integrity of consulting firms cannot be compared on a price basis.

"The proposed engineering survey represents the first and most important phase of a long-range construction project which probably extend over decades and eventually cost millions of dollars. Since it is at this initial stage that the master plan is laid out and the cost fixed, it is obviously essential that a consulting firm of high competence be engaged for the master plan. The cost of the survey will probably be well under 1% of the eventual overall cost of the long-range program. A careless or inadequate study of all of the alternate possibilities at this stage could eventually cost the Town many, many times any "savings" in engineering fees obtained by taking competitive bids for engineering services.

"For the above reasons and many more, the Boston Society of Civil Engineers and the American Society of Civil Engineers have declared it to be unethical and not in the public interest to compete for engineering assignments on the basis of price.

"The writer understands that the proposed survey would be performed on a per diem basis and the Town would be billed only for work actually done. The $25,000 estimate referred to in your editorial represents an upper limiting fee which could not be exceeded. By performing the work on a per diem basis the engineers would have sufficient latitude to thoroughly investigate any alternate plans which could result in savings to the Town in construction costs.

"The above should not be construed as a plea for stifling competition among engineering firms. The Town's present consulting engineers have performed highly competent work for the Town during the past three years. Nevertheless, there should be no objection to the Selectmen's interviewing other consultants. The selection of a consultant for this particular project should, however, be based on such considerations as prior experience and magnitude of drainage projects, qualifications and experience of the principals of the firm and the key men proposed to handle the work, demonstrated accuracy in predetermining construction costs, and availability of the firm to handle the assignment considering sufficiency of personnel and work already current with the firm. The selection should not be based on price. Cheap engineering is expensive and to employ it is a disservice to the Town."

Tree Disposal Now Problem

How to dispose of trees, many of them uprooted to make way for new construction, is a problem confronting the town of Andover. The matter came up for discussion at Monday evening's meeting of the selectmen.

Many trees are being taken to the town dumping site and are causing difficulty. The selectmen agreed that some suitable location for the disposal of trees should be looked up. Town Manager Thomas E. Duff was asked to make a survey and see if he could come up with a recommendation.

Selectman Philip K. Allen commented that he had seen large trees being transported on trailers and at times they caused a road hazard. He mentioned that on one occasion he observed a large stone shaken from the roots of a tree which rolled onto the roadway and could have caused an accident.

Coming Events:

AUGUST

- 1 Library closed Saturdays.
- 4 Story hour for boys and girls, 11 a.m.

Summer Hours:

The main library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Children's room is open daily 10 a.m. to 12, and 2-5 p.m. on those same days. Both rooms are closed on Saturdays.

Ballardvale branch is open the usual hours: Monday and Thursday, from 2-5, and 6-8 p.m.

Vacation Loans

August vacationers are reminded that the summer loan is still available at the library for those who wish to take a number of books on an extended loan, to be due back at the library on Sept. 15. Any book which the library has owned for a year, which is not in special demand or on reserve lists may be borrowed. No limit is set on the number of books which may be borrowed. Boys and girls have their normal loan increased from four books at a time to six. These, if meeting the same regulations as adult books mentioned above, may be kept out for the extended period. Parents who accompany children may take any number of books for them for vacation.

Organization Information

Recently the Memorial Hall Library sent out its annual questionnaire to members of clubs and organizations of Andover with the hope that immediate returns of the filled-in sheets would make it possible to bring up to date the information needed for the files. Each group has been contacted and the person to whom the slip has been mailed has been asked to fill in and return at once, or to see that the questionnaire is put into the hands of the person who could supply the information.

This is not a matter of idle curiosity, but is a project that proves extremely useful to library users during the year. Newcomers, campaign chairmen and community workers often need to know what groups meet regularly in a town or city. It is important that they know the meeting place, the number of members, the purpose of the organization, whether social, civic, educational, religious, etc. Questions are often asked as to full name of a group known by its initials; or when the group meets, when it elects officers, etc. For the use of the library other questions have been asked: Does the group make use of the library facilities, such as projection equipment, free films, etc. A filled in questionnaire is put on file, available for the use of the public.

It is hoped that returns from the mailing will be in the library by Sept. 1 at the latest. Groups electing officers in the fall are asked to keep in mind the importance of the information, and to send it as soon as available.

Club leaders who make use of the summer months to prepare winter programs and to "bone up" on the art of running a club, are invited to the library to see some of the books on hand which will give fine suggestions. Among the more popular titles are "Robert's Rules Of Order", "New Ways To Better Meetings" by Strauss, "Handbook Of Parliamentary Procedure" by Davidson, "Sturgis Standard Code Of Parliamentary Procedure" by Sturgis, "Clubwoman's Book" by Avery, "How To Run A Club" by Simmons, "101 Ideas For Clubs" by Stern and "So You've Joined A Club" by Capone.

The library also has material on the various other phases of club work, such as the writing of a constitution and by-laws, the work of committees, attracting new members, program planning and publicity. For those who wish to present entertainment for fund raising, the library can supply many excellent suggestions. The speechmaker may find that he is not the forgotten man, after all, when he reads Friedman's "Speechmaker's Complete Handbook" and Ivan Grimshaw's "How To Prepare A Speech." All these and more are available at the Memorial Hall Library.

Playground Children Hold Happy Outing

On a warm clear mid-summer day Tuesday, eight bus loads of happy Andover children enjoyed the annual playground outing to Canobie Lake park in New Hampshire.

For more than four hours the boys and girls engaged in a program of sports, took advantage of the park's recreational facilities and consumed box lunches, milk, candy bars and ice cream furnished by the town recreational committee.

The children assembled at the Central, Ballardvale, Shawsheen, Indian Ridge and West Center playgrounds in the morning and boarded buses which took them to the Central school grounds. From there the trip to the lake started at 10:30. Arrival at the park was at 11 a.m. and the return trip started at 3:15 p.m.

The day's program was in charge of playground director George F. Snyder who was assisted by the playground staff. The following carried out various assignments during the program: Clerk of Course, Ted Boudreau; Starters, Patricia Brennan, Carlene Darby; Judges, Nora Harrison, Patricia Goodwin, Susan Wholey; Recorders, Barbara Bradley, Gladys Thomson; Prizes, Beverly Sparks, Mary Winters; Ice Cream, Barbara Forsythe, Diane LaRochelle.

Costume Show

A colorful Hawaiian dress created by Valerie Selfridge won first prize at the costume show held Friday at the Central playground as the feature of the week. It was voted the prettiest in the show.

Beverly Naylor was winner of second prize while third went to Nancy Dery in this category.

For the most unusual costume, first honors went to Mary Snyder for her Queen of the Jungle creation. Warren Naylor was second and David Towne third.

Marshall Petrie won top honors for the funniest costume with a beatnik outfit. Susan McCallion was second.

Valerie Selfridge was awarded the gold ribbon for wearing the best costume in the show, her Hawaiian grass skirt with flowers and leis.

Friday morning there will be a pet show as well as an arts and crafts display of decorated fly swatters. Registration at Central during the week was 606 children.

Shawsheen Events

A parade on wheels was the feature of the week at the Shawsheen playground. There were two categories, carriages and bicycles.

The best of the show award was presented to Denise Beaulieu for her baby doll in carriage. Other winners were: Roanne Fitzgerald, twin dolls in carriage; Susan Cox and Deborah Naman.

In the bicycle contest, awards for the gaily decorated entries went to Diane Willig, first; Susan Beaulieu and Caroline Allen tied for second.

The Shawsheen Rebels scored a 9-5 victory in a baseball game with the Central nine at the latter team's playground.

Special events planned are a stuffed toy and doll show and an arts and crafts display of guimp bracelets and lanyards. Registration was 375.

Bubble Gum Contest

A very amusing bubble gum show was held Thursday, June 23, at the Indian Ridge playground. Winners by age groups were: Elizabeth Gordon, six; Robert Jeffrey, seven; Jean Carney, seven; Maureen Carlson, nine; Margaret Carney, nine; William Douglas, eight; Carol Becotte, 11; Jane Warren, ten; Barry Sullivan, ten;

Inspector For Health Board

A health inspector for Andover will be appointed soon, probably at the next meeting of the board of selectmen on August 10. The matter came up at last Monday evening's meeting when Town Manager Thomas E. Duff, told the board of health Chairman Robert A. Walsh had recommended the appointment of Harold A. Gurry for the position.

When it was brought out that this was the only candidate before the board for appointment, the members agreed that they should delay action to determine if anyone else wished to apply.

The duties will consist of making inspections at eating and drinking establishments to make sure that sanitary conditions are maintained and that food and drink quality and handling are according to regulations.

REPLACEMENTS NEEDED FOR RESCUE CRAFT

acquired a number of safety boats in this manner.

Chief Hilton is of the opinion that a couple of pram type boats would be of greater value to the department than the conventional designed outboard boat. Prams would give greater stability in rescue operations. Chief Hilton feels. Two 12-foot prams equipped with seven and one-half horse power outboards would make suitable replacements for the emergency boats now in use.

Chief Hilton pointed out that the fire department men keep the present boats in the best condition possible and they are always ready for an emergency on the water.

METERS' FEES WILL BE SUSPENDED HERE

there is strong sentiment for a return to the use of pennies in the meters instead of the present five cent charge. The town manager said that the eleven-year old manual meters presented some problems. He reported that at the time the change over to the nickel fee was made officials said that pennies at times dropped thru without registering, causing numerous complaints.

Mr. Duff said that the average annual income from a parking meter is about $70 a year. He said that this figure remains constant whether pennies or nickels are used.

The town manager pointed out that the question of turn over as compared to revenue was involved. Members of the board were in agreement that the prime concern was to have as much accommodation as possible for the downtown shoppers. Mr. Duff is to make a further study of the penny-nickel question and report back at a later date.
